Polymerupdate.com, the preferred destination for global players seeking plastics and petrochemical intelligence announced today that it has opened a new branch office in Guilin, China, the firm's first overseas office.

"Opening of the new office in Guilin, China will allow us to better serve our growing base of clients in mainland China," commented Mr. Sajjid Mitha, CEO and Founder of Polymerupdate. He added, "our office in China reaffirms our commitment towards expanding our reach within Asia, a region where our client base is growing exponentially. For polymerupdate's clients across China, real time newsfeeds and daily market intelligence will be translated into Chinese.

The office in China will respond to Chinese customer needs more effectively and will make available to local customers the many services on offer on polymerupdate." Mr. Mitha said, " other plans to expand polymerupdate's reach within the industry are currently underway as Polymerupdate strives to include it's name in the top three global petrochemical market information providers .'
Polymerupdate's headquarters are based in Mumbai, India.
