Recently (4 January) Studio Vasant and N.G.O. Sahaj Sankalp joined hand together to organise a function at Studio Vasant, where the viewing of paintings by Baljit Chadha, J.P. Singh, Jeet Kumar, Ghanshyam, Alka Raghuvanshi, Asit Patnaik & Ritu Kashyap and special auction of Bat donated by Australian Cricket Captain Ricky Ponting.

On this occasion carrying the Punter's (Ricky Ponting) bat from Australia, Henry Dubbeld, his wife Wilma Dubbeld, Dr. Rajeev Nagpal (Sahaj Sankalp), Dr. Anjali Nagpal, Dr. Mala, Baljit Chadha (Director, Studio Vasant), Manmohan Chadha, painters; Alka Raghuvanshi, Wajda Khan, Victor Vijay Kumar and Pankaj Mohan were also present there. The motive behind this function was to earn funds through the auction of Bats and Paintings to help NGO Sahaj Sankap.

On this occasion Henry Dubbeld said, we are on a mission to help needy children around the world and this is our second visit to India for Sahaj Sankalp. We have helped many children for education and medical need's. This time we have carried the bat of Australian Cricket Captain Ricky Ponting duly signed by him for the auction and we'll donate entire funds of the auction to Sahaj Sankalp.

Baljit Chadha said, our aim is to promote art and artists creativity by exhibiting their paintings, so that they can bring their skills in front of art lovers. Also we do many activities for charity purpose and recently we had concluded the exhibition of paintings by various artists for Prabhat (renowned NGO working for childrens in need), and this time we have joined hands with Sahaj Sankalp, where not only the painting but also the special auction of Bat of Aussie skipper Ricky Ponting is there and the entire funds will be given to Sahaj Sankalp.

Dr. Rajeev Nagpal, applauded the efforts of Baljit Chadha and Australian guests Henry & Wilma Dubbeld. He said their efforts are worth appreciation as they came in front and took initiative to help the children in need, whereas people don't have time for themselves. Since last 7 years we are doing work for poor children who need help for a better and well deserved life. Our aim is to provide the education, medical attention and other needful things to children so they can able to lead good life.
