Florastand - Bangalore florist, Wholesale Flower supplier, and wholly owned online and retail flower outlet of Rayer Flora (India) Private Limited (<http://www.rayerflora.com/>), start Wholesale operations in Chennai from Jan 2008, ahead of Valentines day.

Currently, FloraStand supplies flowers like Roses, Gerbera, carnations, gladiolas and Heliconia etc. florists and wholesalers in Bangalore. 'We have been supplying flowers to few wholesalers and florists in Chennai, Cochin and other cities in Kerala last year. These wholesalers and florists in turn supply to leading star hotels and corporates including IT companies apart from their own flower shops. With increased demand to our Roses, we decided to open our operation in Chennai by setting up our own office to supply to large number of florists in that city' states Mr.V.Mani, Managing Director.

Florastand is timing their operation start up in Chennai just ahead of Valentines day 2008 (ie. 14th Feb) in order to meet surging demands for red roses and also has plan to start retail flower shop soon.

Apart from supplying flower arrangements to corporate offices restaurants and hotels in bangalore, FloraStand also undertakes decoration assignments like Bridal decoration, ATM / Office inauguration, Car decoration etc. Florastand online <http://www.florastand.com> now had built a strong patronage from consumers both from India and from USA and UK with its quality of flower supply.
