

Chinese Taipei golfer joins roommate as second to register hole-in-one

Chen Kuan-Pei became the second player to register a hole-in-one as she aced the 187-yard par 3 16th hole. The first player was another Chinese Taipei player, Shih Huei-Ju, who shot a hole-in-one on the par-3 eighth on the first day

New Delhi, Delhi, IND, 2008-03-28 15:30:00 (IndiaPRwire.com)

Chen Kuan-Pei became the second player to register a hole-in-one as she aced the 187-yard par 3 16th hole. The first player was another Chinese Taipei player, Shih Huei-Ju, who shot a hole-in-one on the par-3 eighth on the first day.

The pair will now share the Rs. 50,000 put up by Sudhir Gensets as the reward for an ace.

Interestingly, the duo shares the room here at the hotel. "While I am happy to be the second player to get a hole-in-one, but I am not too happy sharing the money," said Chen with a mischievous smile.

On Thursday, the Taipei pro aced the 187-yard par 3 16th hole. Chen, the 23-year-old, who lists sleeping as her hobby, shot a second round of 72 to be three-over 147.

Meanwhile Shih added a second 72 to be even par lie in third place.

- END -

For more information, Please contact:

Satyender Singh Dhull
Associate - India InfoMedia
26687610, 26687611

You can also visit www.indiainfomedia.com for more information.