Japan's Satoko Hasegawa became the third player to register a hole-in-one at the DLF Women's Indian Open, when she aced the par-3 11th hole on the third and final day. Maintaining the run of an ace a day, Hasegawa used a 5-Iron to perfection on 181-yard hole to assure herself a share of the Rs. 50,000 prize put up by Sudhir Gensets.

Earlier in the tournament, Shih Huei-Ju of Chinese Taipei in the first round and her roommate Chen Kuan-Pei had a hole-in-one each on the first and second days. Hasegawa shot a 74 and finished at seven-over 223 and in 16th place. Chen and Shih finished at four-over 220 in tied ninth place. Besides their prize purse, the trio will now share Rs. 50,000 with each getting Rs. 16,666.66 for their hole-in-one efforts.
