Chennai, Tamil Nadu, IND, 2008-04-04 10:48:29 (IndiaPRwire.com)

In its endeavor to display the latest world class products, India Imports & Exports Trade Fair 2008 is being conducted from the 4th to 7th April 2008 at Chennai Trade center, Nandambakkam Chennai.

This four day exhibition was inaugurated by Hon'ble Deputy Consul-General (commercial Dept.) of Thai Consulate, Dr.Paisan Maraprygsavan. "It's a great initiative from iCare Communication to organise this one of a kind exhibition in Chennai" said Paisan Maraprygsavan, adding, "Chennai is booming in a big way as a global destination for importers and exporters, and therefore the scope for such exhibitions is tremendous. With a wide range of products displayed in this show it is sure to grab the attention of the people of Chennai.'

This four day extravaganza displays a wide array of products from Thailand, Malaysia, Kenya, China, Vietnam, Singapore and various other overseas participants. This exhibition also brings together importers, exporters and manufacturers from various cities around India.

There is an exclusive collection of handicrafts, wooden statues, murals, pottery, artifacts, and home furnishings. A number of Thailand participants will be displaying products such as bags, costume jewellery, artificial flowers, watches & glares, dry flowers, mango wood vase, palm leaf flowers, decorative items, high-end home theatres, crockery, etc.

It's a treat for shopaholics from all around the city to view the exquisite furniture. The show also features products and brands from various countries that would be a feast for home decorators and does not weigh too heavy on their pockets.

The aim of this exhibition is to promote various imported and exported products under one roof and to give u a glimpse of a large variety of products from different fields.

India Imports Exports & Manufacturers Trade Fair brings together the direct owners and importers, reducing the interference of middlemen, thus bringing about better pricing and stability.

Venue: Chennai Trade Centre, Nandambakkam, Chennai, Timing: 10.00 am to 8.30 pm, Date: 4th to 7th April 2008
