Mrs Seema Mehta was awarded 'Wedding Planner and Designer of the Year Award' while Megha received the 'Interior & Floral Designer of the year Award'.

Both Mrs Seema Mehta and Megha Mehta are Directors of Ambiance - the flagship company of R2S group which is already a leading player in the Wedding Planning and Designing segment with a turnover of nearly Rs 10 Crore per annum.

Speaking to the media, just after receiving the award Mrs Seema Mehta said, 'Our Mission was, and always be to create signature weddings with the utmost creativity, passion and professionalism. Our Commitment was, and will always be, to build a personal relationship and friendship with our clients, offering them the most innovative and creative wedding possible as inspired by their life and their love.

Ambiance today is a full service wedding management infrastructure and service providing company with several wedding packages to choose from. Its goal is to make weddings and theme parties stress-free, 'fun-tastic' and unforgettable event to remember for its clients. Some of its prestigious clients include socials events in the families of Jindals, Rajat Sharma, Farooq Abdullah, Late Shri Pramod Mahajan, Dilip Cherian.

A graduate from the American Institute of Floral Design, Megha Bhagat Mehta -- a professional wedding consultant, Interior and Floral designer said, 'In our busy society, an increasing number of couples need to hire a planner to plan their special day. They need someone to oversee all the arrangement details and ensure that the wedding is a success. That "someone" is a wedding planner who looks after and coordinates the various aspects of the wedding. This starts with the planning and budgeting, preparing the guest list to hiring the decorators, caterers and other wedding vendors, fixing the venue and even suggesting a place for the bride and groom to go for their honeymoon'
