

Pearl Academy student bags prestigious University of Arts Scholarship

A 100% fee waiver scholarship of University of Arts

New Delhi, Delhi, IND, 2008-05-05 16:18:45 (IndiaPRwire.com)

Pearl Academy - Delhi, student has been awarded scholarship of £22,000 by Royal Society of Arts / University of Arts, UK to pursue his Master's programme. Chief Minister of the National Capital Territory of Delhi Smt. Sheila Dikshit presented the scholarship scroll to the winner Rohan Chhabra - final year student of B.A. Hons Fashion Design programme - at a function hosted by Sir Richard Stagg, British High Commissioner to India at his residence.

Rohan Chhabra, final year fashion design student of Pearl Academy of Fashion, Delhi received 100% tuition fee waiver scholarship of University of Arts, London. He was one among several applicants, hailing from top design institutes all across India who competed for this scholarship. Rohan will join University of Arts, London in September for a two-year Master's degree in Industrial Design.

University of Arts is world's one of the best Universities for Art & Design. It has colleges like London School of Fashion, Central St Martin's, Chelsea College in its umbrella.

Congratulating Rohan for winning this prestigious scholarship, A K G Nair, Group Director said, "Rohan indeed deserved this. His works are exemplary. There is a growing trend among students from PAF to undertake Master's degree or postgraduate specialization programmes for last two years. Some of them take up higher studies soon after completing their undergraduate Bachelor's degree and a few take up after 6 - 12 months of industry experience."

- END -

About Pearl Academy of Fashion:

Pearl Academy of Fashion (PAF) is a centre of excellence imparting professional education and training in the field of fashion, textiles, retail and media industry. It is the first and only institute in the country that offers internationally recognized B.A. and M.A. level programmes in fashion in association with the Nottingham Trent University (NTU), U.K., and LDT Nagold, Germany, widely acclaimed world leaders in fashion and retail education. The Academy has active networking with national and international organizations, besides membership in prestigious bodies like the International Foundation of Fashion Technology Institutes, National Retail Federation, USA and the fashion design council of India.

For more information, Please contact:

Dimple Mehta

Associate Consultant - Hanmer&Partners
46517700