

Idhasoft acquires US based Intelligium

Idhasoft announced today that it has acquired Intelligium, headquartered in Atlanta, USA for an undisclosed amount.

Mumbai, Maharashtra, IND, 2008-05-07 13:14:27 (IndiaPRwire.com)

Intelligium is a world-class rapidly growing IT company specializing in infrastructure management services. It works closely with Fortune 1000 companies across industries and it brings several client relationships and active engagements to Idhasoft. Intelligium will now become the wholly owned subsidiary of Idhasoft.

The Rs.400 crore Idhasoft has headquarters in Atlanta, USA and Navi Mumbai, India. It is a rapidly growing IT services provider in retail banking, financial services, manufacturing, healthcare and insurance domains. Idhasoft's clients include leading Fortune 500 companies and this acquisition will help consolidate Idhasoft's presence in the infrastructure management space.

In addition to growing organically, Idhasoft is also looking at other acquisitions to achieve its goal of Rs.1000 crores in Revenues in the current fiscal year.

- END -

For more information, Please contact:

Amit Nigam

Account Executive - Pressman Advertising & PR
+91 22 22818520

You can also visit www.pressmanindia.com for more information.