Recently, EXIM Rajathi, a part of a large conglomerate and the flagship of Rajathi Group with an annual turnover close to USD 110 million has bagged the most prestigious award for Outstanding Export Performance of Groundnuts Export for the year 2005-06. It is an acknowledgment for being the largest exporter in processed oil and oil seeds & grains in terms of volume and value for Groundnut category.

This award was instituted recently by the Indian Oilseeds and Products Exporters Association, to honour and encourage export of oil seeds & gains from India.

EXIM Rajathi started its groundnut export in the year 1995, which now has the credit of accounting large percentage of India's groundnut export. Thanks to the able and astute leadership of Mr. Rajesh Managing Director, Exim Rajathi has also won the Niryat Shree award for the year 2003-04 and also 2005-06.

Receiving this award on behalf of EXIM Rajathi, Mr. M. Rajesh, Managing Director, Rajathi Group said: 'Am delighted and honored in receiving this prestigious award. An award gives you great motivation and builds your confidence to reach greater heights. It is a proud moment not only for me but also for the people who have been a part of this great continuous effort in building a niche space for EXIM Rajathi in the large export map of India. We are currently also venturing into Blanching and Vacuum form packing for creating value addition.'

EXIM Rajathi's groundnut exports accounts for 11.52% pc of India's groundnut export. Presently the groundnuts are being exported to Indonesia, Manila, Malaysia and Sri Lanka.

For more than five decades, the Indian Oilseeds & Produce Exporters Association, known as IOPEA in trade circles, has been the national agency for promotion of export of oilseeds from India. It is an autonomous, non-profit making body, serving as the common forum for the Indian oilseeds exporters, foreign buyers, Indian government, R&D agencies for oilseeds in India and international agencies such as the WTO, FOSFA, GAFTA.
