Munish Baldev, former President Marketing of Indiabulls Real Estate Limited (IBREL), has joined DLF, one of the country's leading real estate developers, as Vice President Marketing.

A civil engineer by profession, Munish Baldev started his career with the Ansals Group, where he occupied office as CEO.

After his stint at Ansals, he joined retail pioneer Vikram Bakshi, MD Mcdonalds, to take care of his shopping mall projects. After a year, Munish was brought into Unitech Group as Head Retail where he pioneered two large format properties-Metro City Walk Amusement Centre in Rohini & The Great India Place mall in Noida, the largest operational mall in the country.

Munish is today one of the few professionals from the Indian real estate industry who possess hands down experience in construction, mall management, marketing & right tenant mix to name a few.
