When: From 29th November to 12th December, 11 a.m to 9 p.m

Where: Intercontinental Eros, Nehru Place, Delhi

A group show like 'Rhythm of Colors '08' reveals the variations & combinations of colors that emerge from different techniques & styles used by artists; from the relatively monochromatic pallet of Vinod Sharma, the beautiful 'eye' by Raamji Sharma to multi heued canvases of Seema Kohli. The significance of traditional colors is also visualized in a direct or indirect form in the show; with the flute of Krishna by Bratin Khan to beautiful hanuman by Ramesh Godzala.

Bratin Khan's who is a very prominent artist of India, participated in Christie's 2001-02 has once again created a masterpiece 'Krishna- Sudama' with a beautiful/ mild color story displaying the magic created by Krishna's flute.. Khan lives & works in Kolkata. Seema Kohli's vivid & multi layered pallet & vibrant colors add-on to the beautiful theme of Lord Vishnu & Lakshmi Ji with beautiful floating angels. Seema lives & works in Delhi.. Suhas Roy is regarded as one of the modern masters of Bengal school. His oeuvre is dominated by depiction of female figures & forms, which are informed by certain romanticism. Suhas dada lives & works in Kolkata.

Raamji Sharma's painting 'Balance' is one of the most elegant works with an amazing theme. One cannot stop looking at the beautiful 'Eye' & the balance of pencil. Truly he is a master of realism & hellip;

Shuvendu Sarkar, who lives & works from Delhi, is an amazing realistic artist & this is so very much visible in his beautiful painting of 'Balloon Seller' in Calcutta streets. PR and Media Relations for this art exhibition is being managed by leading life style, art and Exhibitions pr agency Approach Communications.
