Bengaluru, Karnataka, November 29, 2009 /India PRwire/ -- Aranyam announced today the line-up of films selected from a record number of submissions for the Aranyam Film Festival on Environment and Wildlife. The premier showcase for the best new work by independent filmmakers, Aranyam Film Festival provides audiences with abundant opportunities to discover today's environment, understand the climate and discover the Wildlife. The 2009 Aranyam Film Festival runs December 2-3, in Alliance Françoise Cultural Centre - Vasanthnagar, Bangalore. The Film Festival will be inaugurated by Chairman of Pollution Control Board, A.S Sadashivaiah. The complete list of films is available at www.aranyam.org

"The broad range of genre's in this year's Festival is not simply in terms of the demographics of the submissions and the issues they explore," said Aswin Nandakumar, Festival Manager, Aranyam Film Festival. "This year we are seeing serious storytelling and art that actually illustrates the World we Live in, the impact of Climate Change on Habitats and the solutions to Climate change situation and heroes, who have achieved great success in their environment conservation initiatives. Due to Time Constrain, not everything can be screened but we are optimistic to screen them at our upcoming festivals in other cities, he added"

The Festival is preparing to Travel to Thiruvananthapuram, Chennai, Bhubaneswar and Jaisalmer in the future.

What's New for the 2009 Aranyam Film Festival?

Climate Change - A Glimpse of truth & The Solutions

As the world knows that ice is melting and global warming is real, the festival organizers will not show too many films related to Global Warming but give more importance to the solutions in hand.
