New Delhi, Delhi, March 15, 2008 /India PRwire/ -- The recently crowned Haywards 5000 Mr India 2008 winner, Pravesh Rana launched his official website www.praveshrana.com in Mumbai yesterday. Friends & well-wishers from Bollywood, media, fashion fraternity & the corporate world turned up in large numbers to congratulate the most desirable man of India & close friend and CEO Brandsmith, Rahul Mittra for this initiative.

"In today's world of quick dissemination of information, its vital to be accessible to your fraternity & fans and well-wishers," said the Sauve Pravesh Rana who was a leading emcee in Delhi before he won the highly coveted title. "I am sure people would appreciate my simple, yet informative website which has been specially designed to make it search engine friendly. It would also make it easier for agencies, film production houses & media outfits to reach out to me quickly," said Rana.

Pravesh is based in Mumbai for the last one year and has been getting amazing response from the Indian fashion & film industry, whilst he prepares for the highly coveted Mr International contest to be held in China later this year.

www.praveshrana.com has been conceptualised and developed by leading brand promotions & events company-Brandsmith in association with its sister concern Eilix Network.
