

Hollywood Actor & Anti Gay Activist George Lee will be meeting Indian Congress leader Sonia Gandhi

Controversial Hollywood actor and anti gay activist will be coming to India to meet with Ms. Sonia Gandhi on his way to Iran

Hollywood, CA, March 21, 2008 /India PRwire/ -- Controversial Hollywood actor and anti gay activist George Lee Clark is taking multi national tour to promote his latest documentary film "You're Rejected". George believes in conservative ideology Christianity. He is a "self appointed Soldier of Christ" he firmly believes homosexuality is a greater sin and God destroyed two cities in the ancient time (The Battle of Armageddon). He is totally against the gay & lesbian relationship around the world and he supports the governments which has harsh punishment for homosexual acts. Indian American Film maker Parthiban Shanmugam followed his life style for period of two years and made a documentay feature film which will be realeased in USA at the time of Presidential election in 2009.

Currently George is visiting several countries to promote gay ban legislation, He will be meeting The Pope at the Vatican and getting his blessings for his International tour. He will be visiting India, Pakistan, China and Iran. In India he will be meeting Ms. Sonia Gandhi and Indian Prime Minister and Law minister and Supreme Court Judges. He will give his formal support for Indian Penal code 377 and request them not to repeal the law.

Final leg of his tour ends in the Iran where homosexuals are gets capital punishment.

For more information, please contact:

David Lynn
PRO

© copyright 2012 India PRwire (<http://www.indiaprwire.com>)

India PRwire disclaims any content contained in press release. Use of our service is governed by our privacy policy and terms of service.