The Language of Aviation:

Working in aviation requires a very specific knowledge of the English language. Aviation English is a language of its own with regard to specialized vocabulary, terminology and grammar structures. Emantras developed this module to ease understanding the language specifically of use to Asians and those for whom English is not their 1st language.

Game-based learning:

The newly developed WBT offers how to get the most out of learning Aviation English: Learning takes place by carrying out a variety of interactive tasks in various lessons and challenging games both of which offer an enhanced level for self motivation. It also cajoles the user to be more engrossed in the learning which is more fun than before.

Interactive Learning experience:

A rich and varied selection of training content is at your disposal and a wide range of practical exercises consolidate the students' newly acquired knowledge.

"A great Moment and timing when we have just been recognized as innovator and leader in the learning space for various segments. I am quite sure that this is the start for many more to come" says Mr. Sesh Kumar, CEO Emantras Inc
