Honourable Chief Minister of Delhi, Mrs. Sheila Dikshit inaugurates new Metro line from Vishwavidyalaya-Azadpur to Jehangirpuri

New Delhi, Delhi, February 3, 2009 /India PRwire/ -- The Honorable chief Minister, Ms. Sheila Dikshit while inaugurating the Vishwavidyalaya-Azadpur-Jehangirpuri section also inaugurated the Azadpur metro station duly constructed by Parsvnath Developers Limited (PDL).

This prestigious contract valued at Rs 65 crore was the first Public Private Partnership Project on BoT basis being awarded by DMRC to a private developer. Parsvnath Developers Limited completed the construction of station box within a stipulated time. Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Pradeep Jain, Chairman, Parsvnath Developers Limited said, "We are very proud to be associated with DMRC in these prestigious infrastructure ventures in the capital city.

It is my firm belief that Parsvnath would live up to the expectations in delivering quality within stipulated time frame in all future ventures. We look forward to be a part of DMRC to construct malls and station boxes as it expands its routes." PDL has also developed a Metro Mall at the Azadpur Metro station. The developed Shopping Mall located on a busy route will have an enormous footfall and would ensure a smooth shopping experience for its metro travellers.

Recently, Parsvnath also bagged contracts from DMRC for construction of important Dhaula Kuan Metro Station and Common Wealth Village Site Metro Station. Parsvnath Developers Ltd. is also developing 13 Metro Malls out of which it has already completed 7 Metro Malls.
